Pilgrimage to the Holy Land: October 26th—November 2nd

This Autumn I will be the Christian leader on the East London Three Faiths Forum pilgrimage to the Holy Land. We will be visiting sites sacred to Muslims, Jews and Christians, accompanied by reflections from myself, Rabbi David Hulbert and Mohammed Omar. The pilgrimage party will be comprised of members of each faith tradition. If you would like to come there are plenty of spaces still available and there are leaflets at the back of the church. If interested please have a word with me (Jude) after the service or give me a ring.

A warm welcome to our visitors today

Opening Hymn 10 All creatures of our God and King

Welcome and penitential rite

Let us consider our humanness and our likeness to God. Let us be aware that each of us is human; that each of us stumbles, forgets, offends, and is thoughtless. Let us also be aware of our response to God's call to grace and how much we have loved. Let us ask each other for forgiveness and express our gratefulness to God, the eternal one. For the times we were sluggish in our response to be the persons we were meant to be.

Loving God, forgive us as we forgive each other.

For our judgments of each other, for being closed to the goodness in each person, and focusing in on those things that annoy us.

Loving God, forgive us as we forgive each other.

For our impatience, selfishness, and narrowness of vision that centre around our own needs and excludes others.

Loving God, forgive us as we forgive each other.

For all our thoughtless mistakes that cause hurt or inconvenience to others.

Loving God, forgive us as we forgive each other.

For our friendliness, concern, and genuine love for each other.

Loving God, we are grateful.

For the goodness we have experienced in each other and in ourselves as we share our lives.

Loving God, we are grateful.

Loving and merciful God, you who know our hearts' innermost movements, our good intentions yet our waywardness, look on us now with forgiveness. Remind us constantly of our godliness. Embrace us in your love and bind us together so that we may be one as you are one.

Gloria: 222

Opening prayer

God of love and mercy, you call us to be your people, you gift us with your abundant grace. Make us a holy people, radiating the fullness of your love. Form us into a community, a people who care, expressing your compassion. Remind us day after day of our baptismal call to serve, with joy and courage, Teach us how to grow in wisdom and grace and joy in your presence. Through Jesus and in your Spirit, we make this prayer. Amen

Concluding with the Lord's prayer

Eternal Spirit, Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver
Source of all that is and all that shall be, Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God who is in heaven:

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

The way of your justice be followed by people of the world!

Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With bread we need for today, feed us.

In the hurts we absorb from one another forgive us.

In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.

From trials too great to endure, spare us.

From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

Amen
