OPENING SONG 280 Hail to the Lord's anointed

Prayer of forgiveness

God of healing, God of wholeness, we bring our brokenness, our sinfulness, our fears and despair, and lay them at your feet. God of healing, God of wholeness, we hold out hearts and hands, minds and souls to feel your touch, and know the peace that only you can bring. God of healing, God of wholeness, this precious moment in your presence and power grant us faith and confidence that here broken lives are made whole Amen

Brothers and Sisters to all and to each, on our community and friends, where regret is real, God pronounces his pardon and grants us the right to begin again.

SONG 834 Will you come and follow me

N E W S Recycling Thank you to everyone who has been recycling their inkjet cartridges through St Anne's over the past few years. The amounts of money raised through recycling have not been great, however, the environmental benefits are invaluable. Regrettably we are no longer able to accept old ink cartridges for recycling as almost every cartridge is unrecyclable. Some inkjet manufacturers now run their own recycling schemes for individuals.

Jumble sale Feb 17th at 10.00am If you would like to contribute jumble we will be collecting it at the back of the church and if you need it picked up—please ring Anthony on 07947 127717. Thank you in advance.

Sidesmen; there will be a training/refresher 1/2 hour after church on Sunday 4th Feb after the service.

Prayer of Faith

We believe and trust in God the Father Almighty.

We believe and trust in Jesus Christ his Son.

We believe and trust in the Holy Spirit.

We believe and trust in the Three in One. Amen.

Sign of Peace

The gifts of bread and wine are then brought to the table

SONG 767 Thou, whose almighty word

And now, following Jesus' example and command we take this bread and wine, the ordinary things of the world which Christ will make special. And as he prayed before sharing, let us do so too.

In the silence of our hearts, let us pray for those who need to be remembered: For those who have made the headlines today because of what they have done or said: for those who care for us and for those we care for:

For those who are sick or in trouble:

For those whom the words 'Peace and Justice' bring to mind:

For those for whom we have a special concern .

For those who have died and those we remember with love and affection.

Finally we pray for ourselves.

And now, as Jesus taught us so we pray:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

Your Kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins,

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom,

the power and the glory are yours.

Now and for ever. Amen

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right and good to give you thanks and praise, almighty and eternal God through Jesus Christ your son. He was the one foretold by all the prophets, the one the virgin mother bore with love beyond all telling. John the Baptist was his herald and made him known when at last he came. In his love Christ fills us with joy as we prepare to celebrate his birth, so that when he comes again he may find us watching in prayer, our hearts filled with wonder and praise. So with all the citizens of the commonwealth of heaven we proclaim your glory and sing.

SONG 309 vs 1

We thank you, loving Father, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live. Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and his blood.

On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: 'This is my body, given for you. Do this to remember me.' After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: 'This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this to remember me.'

SONG 309 vs 2

So Father, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Saviour. Help us, Father, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with Mary, Anne and all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.

SONG 309 vs 3

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your Peace.

These are the gifts of God for the people of God; our Lord is coming to us in bread and wine.

*Distribution of Holy Communion
Silent prayer of thanksgiving then notices*

Concluding prayer (say together)

Almighty Father,

whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world:

may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments,

shine with the radiance of his glory,

that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed

to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Final Blessing

SONG: 479 Lord the light of your love
